Dear Sir:

Enclosed herewith is a substitute specification along with a Version Showing Changes Made for the above referenced application. This substitute specification amends the translated specification to place the application in better form for United States patent practice and to make several translation corrections. Applicant submits that the substitute specification does not constitute new matter. By separate document, applicant has amended original claims 1-9 to eliminate multiple dependencies and otherwise place the claims into proper United States format and has amended the abstract. Applicant respectfully requests substantive examination based upon this substitute specification.

Respectfully submitted,
